

Un-stiff the skeleton!

A skeleton is simply a whole set of bones of the human body.

We all have bones in our body. There's nothing to be afraid of :)

Cut out the skeleton's bones along the dotted lines. Then glue the pieces together on a separate piece of paper. Then, use a red marker to mark the major movable joints.